

As well as being a market town, Market Harborough has an INDUSTRIAL HERITAGE and was famous for SYMINGTON'S CORSETS and DAINITE RUBBER SHOE SOLES.

On 17th January 1569, Agnes Bowker of Market Harborough, allegedly GAVE BIRTH TO A CAT!

On the high street stands the three swans hotel, a 16TH CENTURY COACHING INN. King Charles I chose to visit back in 1645, the day before the famous BATTLE OF NASEBY.

Harborough in bloom takes place annually - the amazing volunteers have achieved great success over the years REGULARLY WINNING GOLD AWARDS and making a great contribution to our lovely town.

The RIVER WELLAND flows through the town from west to east. In recent years, much wildlife has returned including families of OTTERS AND KINGFISHERS.
