Leighfield Forest		Spanning parts of east Leicestershire and West Rutland, Leighfield Forest covers about 12,500ha. The Forest combines ancient woodland, pasture, some arable farming and small villages but the size and quality of wildlife habitat has declined. LRWT has four fine ancient woodland nature reserves and the Forestry Commission manages two large ancient woodlands. Nearly all the remaining land is in private ownership
