

Privacy Notice: Health and Safety

Your Personal Data

Who we are

We are Harborough District Council and your privacy is important to us. We aim for full transparency on how we gather, use, and share your personal information in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation.

If you have any concerns about how the Council is handling your personal data, these can be raised with the Council's Data Protection Officer:

Harborough District Council, The Symington Building, Adam and Eve Street, Market Harborough, Leicestershire, LE16 7AG

Telephone 01858 828282 Email FOI@harborough.gov.uk

We keep our privacy notice under regular review and we will place an updated version on this page.

This will help ensure that you are always aware of what information we collect and how we use

it. What we need

We will only collect basic personal data about you which includes your name, address, telephone number, email etc. together with information you have given us and information that we receive from third parties e.g. landlords.

Why we need it

The Council uses your personal information in order to monitor and manage the health and safety of members of the public who have had an accident or incident whilst accessing council activities, land or buildings, as required by the Health and Safety at Work Etc. Act 1974. The processing of your information is necessary for compliance with the legal obligations contained in this Act.

What we do with it

Your personal information will be treated as confidential but it may be shared with other Council services in order to ensure our records are accurate and up-to-date, and to improve the standard of the services we deliver. We will only use your information in ways which are permitted by the General Data Protection Regulation and the current UK Data Protection law.

We have a Data Protection regime in place to oversee the effective and secure processing of your personal data. More information on this framework can be found on our website.

This authority has a duty to protect the public funds it administers, and may use information held about you for all lawful purposes, including but not limited to the prevention and detection of crime including fraud and money laundering.

The Council may also use your information for the purpose of performing any of its statutory duties. It will make any disclosures required by law and may also share your information with other bodies responsible for detecting/preventing crime including fraud or auditing/administering public funds.

There is also information about your computer hardware and software that is automatically collected by Harborough District Council. This information can include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring Web site addresses. This information is used by Harborough District Council for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Harborough District Council Web site.

There may be occasion where we share information with the Health and Safety Executive, this is a legal requirement under the Reporting of Injuries, Diseases and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations 2013.

Your details may be given to our insurers if any public liability claim is made.

We will not disclose your personal information to third parties for marketing purposes

What are your rights

You have the right to:

- request a copy of your information (known as a subject access request)
- request rectification or erasure of your information,
