

Privacy Notice: Asset Management

Your Personal Data

Who we are:

We are Harborough District Council and your privacy is important to us. We aim for full transparency on how we gather, use, and share your personal information in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation.

If you have any concerns about how the Council is handling your personal data, these can be raised with the Council's Data Protection Officer:

Harborough District Council, The Symington Building, Adam and Eve Street, Market Harborough, Leicestershire, LE16 7AG

Telephone 01858 828282 Email FOI@harborough.gov.uk

We keep our privacy notice under regular review and we will place an updated version on this page.

This will help ensure that you are always aware of what information we collect and how we use

it. What we need

We will only collect personal data about you where it is required for the purposes of administering access to this service. This will include your name, date of birth, address, telephone number, email etc. together with information you have given us and information that we receive from third parties e.g. landlords.

Why we need it

The Council uses your personal information in order to meet its obligations under various UK laws in order to:-

- To comply with any statutory obligation regarding management of public assets
- To responsibly manage council assets including any resulting financial transactions
- To comply with any obligation regarding energy and environmental management relating to council assets and facilities
- To promote service improvements
- To respond to customer enquires and complaints

Lawful reason for processing:

- Land an property laws
- Common law principles regarding land and property management
- Public interest
- The Localism Act 2011

The processing of your information is necessary for compliance with the legal obligations contained in these Acts to facilitate a statutory obligation and provide access to Council services.

What we do with it

Your personal information will be treated as confidential but it may be shared with other Council services in order to ensure our records are accurate and up-to-date, and to improve the standard of the services we deliver. We will only use your information in ways which are permitted by the General Data Protection Regulation and the current UK Data Protection law.

We have a Data Protection regime in place to oversee the effective and secure processing of your personal data. More information on this framework can be found on our website

This authority has a duty to protect the public funds it administers, and may use information held about you for all lawful purposes, including but not limited to the prevention and detection of crime including fraud and money laundering.

The Council may also use your information for the purpose of performing any of its statutory enforcement duties. It will make any disclosures required by law and may also share your information with other bodies responsible for detecting/preventing crime including fraud or auditing/administering public funds.

There is also information about your computer hardware and software that is automatically collected by Harborough District Council. This information can include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring Web site addresses. This information is used by Harborough District Council for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Harborough District Council Web site.

The Council will also undertake to share information with the following where circumstances or law require:

- Judicial Agencies e.g. Courts
- Police
- Immigration Service
- Government Departments e.g. HMRC, DWP
- Elected Members & MPs (as your representative)
- Funding Bodies

If you require further information about the use of your data or would like to exercise any of the above rights, please contact:

Data Protection Officer, Harborough District Council, The Symington Building, Adam and Eve Street, Market Harborough, Leicestershire, LE16 7AG

Transferring information overseas

In certain circumstances we may transfer your information to organisations in other countries on the basis that anyone to whom we pass it protects it in the same way we would and in accordance with applicable laws.

How your information is stored.

Currently all related data processing is carried out and stored with username, password and profile restricted system and network storage locations. Access to such systems is profiled to be on a role/need basis. Some bespoke systems are used and restricted in the same manner.

How long we keep your information

We will keep your information for as long as it is required by us or other regulatory bodies in order to comply with legal and regulatory requirements or for other operational reasons. Please see the Council's Document Retention Policy for further information. Some records relating to property disposal may need to be kept in perpetuity.
